Little explanation is necessary for the above excellent drawing by G. H. Davis—which we reproduce through the courtesy of the "Illustrated London News," since the descriptive wording on the drawing makes it self explanatory, while on the previous page we give a more detailed description of this method of training by means of the Vickers-Bygrave Bombing Teacher.